

Pets & Lyme Disease in Vermont

Our companion animals get Lyme disease too. Here are several PSAs from veterinarians in Vermont reminding pet owners to be aware of the problems pets face from Lyme disease. The Lyme Disease Association Inc. also reminds you that pets can bring unattached ticks into the home which can then bite humans.

View “Lyme: A Serious, But Preventable, Disease in Dogs” from the Vermont Veterinary Medical Association (VVMA).

View “April is Prevent Lyme Disease in Dogs Month” from the VVMA.

View “Pets and Pesky Parasites” from the VVMA.

View more about Pets & Lyme disease.