

From 2013 LDA Conf. to 2014 Peer Review: Ticks in Upper Midwest

At the LDA's 14th annual Lyme & Tick-Borne Diseases 2013 conference held in St. Paul Minnesota, Ellen Stromdahl, Entomologist, US Army Public Health Command Entomological Sciences Program at Aberdeen Proving Grounds in Maryland, presented US Army Findings in Ticks from the Upper Midwest. Now, the paper of that talk has been published in the peer reviewed journal Parasites & Vectors.
