LDA President's Blog – Why Patients Need Government Investigation into Lyme's Origins & Any Biowarfare Experiments

From LDA President Pat Smith's Blog: HISTORY-Forty-six years after a mother alerted public health about an unknown disease affecting her Connecticut neighborhood, patients still await answers about Lyme disease and help from the federal government- little has been forthcoming. It's been 37 years since I first saw Lyme as a board of education member and 29 years since I first contacted...
