

Govt. Wants Your Input on National Strategy for Vector-Borne Diseases

The development of a national strategy on vector-borne diseases including tick-borne diseases was mandated by Congress. To inform development of the national strategy to address vector-borne diseases, HHS is issuing this Request for Information (RFI).