2nd Annual Beach Walk for Lyme

5-Mile Walk
October 23, 2005
10:00a.m. Registration
11:00a.m. Walk

Rehoboth Beach Bandstand
Rehoboth Beach, DE

What is Lyme Disease?
Lyme disease is a bacterial infection most commonly contracted from a tick bite. It often causes a flu-like sickness. Untreated, or inadequately treated, it can cause long-term, persistent illness that often affects more than one system of the body.

Lyme Disease is the most prevalent vector-borne disease in the United States, reported in 49 states and the District of Columbia. It also is the most prevalent vector-borne bacterial disease in the world.

Getting to the Root of the Problem

Presented by Lyme Disease Association, Delaware Chapter
Lyme Disease Association, Inc., is a 501(c) (3) Non-Profit Organization, Contributions are tax deductible

Awards given to top fund raisers!

for more information:
302.644.8952